(10 marks)

COMMUNICATION CHANNELS

Read this passage and then answer in brief.

There was a man who had two sons. The younger one asked his father to give him his share. So the father divided his property between his two sons. The younger one took all he had, set off and squandered all his wealth in wild living. It did not take him long to spend everything he had and ended up by himself, feeding pigs. He felt unhappy and wished to return to his father’s home. So he decided to get up and go to his father asking him pardon and to keep him as one of his hired servants. But when his father saw him coming, he ran to his son and took him in his arms and kissed him. The father called his servants to celebrate with him and to have a feast.
