THE CALL OF ZACCHAEUS

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town. There was a man called Zacchaeus. He was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He kept trying to see who Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him because of the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and spoke to him, “Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I am to stay at your house today.” And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. “He has gone to stay at a sinner’s house,” they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, “Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.” And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of man has come to seek out and save what was lost.”
