Section F: Read the following passage and answer all questions.

Nine young people from the Youth For Mission, who form part of the Malta Missionary Office, have carried out a voluntary work experience in Zambia. Through their various capabilities these youths carried out a variety of tasks, amongst which the teaching of children, maintenance, organisation and training about the running of offices, work in clinics and other projects, including the building of a borehole. In the past few months these volunteers organised various activities to collect funds so as to complete these projects. In all, they managed to raise the sum of €5,500. The initiative shown by these young people is to be commended. The need for more youths to carry out similar experiences in a number of countries is always growing, as this serves as a learning experience and a help to others.
