1. Which of the following are RIGHTS and which are WANTS?

Classify them under the correct column.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>computer games</th>
<th>shelter</th>
<th>expensive clothes</th>
<th>education</th>
<th>iphone 6</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>health care</td>
<td>family life</td>
<td>bicycle</td>
<td>holidays abroad</td>
<td>protection</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

RIGHTS

WANTS

---
2. The persons in bold in the stories below are either (i) having their rights denied, or (ii) are not respecting others’ rights or (iii) are enjoying rights. Identify the rights and give a short explanation. The first one has been done for you. (5 marks)

a) Sara is eleven years old. She cannot go to school because she has to take care of her sick mother and her five-year old brother. Sara is denied the right to education.

b) Ms Borg is supervising the students during break time. She notices that Lana is on her own and a group of girls are calling her names and throwing stones at her.

   ________________________________________________________________

   ________________________________________________________________

c) Family Fisher is very poor. Julia, the youngest child, is sick. Her parents take her to hospital and she is taken care of in the best way possible by the hospital staff.

   ________________________________________________________________

   ________________________________________________________________

d) Maria and Josef are living on the streets because their home has been destroyed by bombs.

   ________________________________________________________________

   ________________________________________________________________

e) Yasmin used to live in a children’s home. She has now been adopted and is living happily with her new family.

   ________________________________________________________________

   ________________________________________________________________

f) Joseph works at a construction site. He works from 6:00 am until 6:00 pm. His employer pays him €15 for a whole day’s work, which is much less than the minimum wage.

   ________________________________________________________________

   ________________________________________________________________
3. Match the rights in column A with their explanations in Column B. (5 marks)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Column A</th>
<th>Column B</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Legal Rights</td>
<td>the right to an education</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Political Rights</td>
<td>the right to free state health care if one is a Maltese citizen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Social Rights</td>
<td>the right to life</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Human Rights</td>
<td>the right to a fair trial</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Welfare Rights</td>
<td>the right to vote in an election</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

A letter from Elizabeth

Hi,

My name is Elizabeth or Eliza, or sometimes even Lizzia.

Where do I start....well from as far back as I can remember I’ve been bullied. I was born in Glasgow, Scotland but then moved to Norway when I was two. I lived there for almost five years and came back to my home in Aberdeen, Scotland when I was six. When I came back to Scotland I was a scared six year old (older than everyone), starting a new school where nobody would understand me because I only spoke Norwegian.

I remember that there was this girl called Zoe who decided to pick on me because I was friends with the only other Norwegian girl Sunivia. Sunivia left after my first year at school and I had very few friends. Then another girl called Flora found out I still wet the bed at night and had to wear nappies. From then on the bullying got worse.

When I was 11 my teacher made me take a Dyslexia test and I was told that I had Dyslexia. This was after seven years of attending school and hearing comments like:

'Why are you so stupid?'
'You a year older, you should know more than your class mates.'

When I was twelve I was made to leave the school by the Headmistress because I had a learning disability. I was angry and cried because I didn't know what I did wrong. Then I was moved to a new school and I knew from the moment I went there that I was going to HATE
The bulling that I had tried so hard to escape from was back. And this time in a form I had not had since Kindergarten...boys.

(Adapted from http://www.noplace4hate.org/real-bullying-stories/)

a. Mention three people who used to bully Elizabeth. (3 marks)

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

b. Elizabeth had the right to choose her own friends. True/ False (1 mark)

c. Why do you think Elizabeth was only friends with Sunivia? (3 marks)

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

d. Mention which right Elizabeth was being denied when she was being bullied. (3 marks)

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

E. What responsibilities did the other students and teachers have towards Elizabeth? (3 marks)

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
e. Briefly write what you would do if you saw someone being bullied.

5. Write about 100 words on the following:

These people are trophy hunters. They kill wild animals for pleasure and keep their skin or other parts of the animal as a trophy. The natural environment, including wild life belongs to all humanity. Do you think that trophy hunters have a moral right to destroy wild life? Discuss.