During this extraordinary time, the National Literacy Agency is carrying on with a number of initiatives and programmes to continue instilling a love for reading and writing among children and students:

- Currently, the Agency in collaboration with the Public Broadcasting Services, is airing a new television programme for children on TVM called 'Let's Read Together / Naqraw Flimkien'. This programme consists of a series of short daily episodes, featuring an animated story, in either Maltese 'Naqraw Flimkien' or in English 'Let's Read Together', read aloud by an Agency Reading Animator in a fun and inviting manner. Viewers can watch the programme 'Let's Read Together / Naqraw Flimkien' every day at 10:00 a.m. on TVM. A repetition of this programme is broadcasted on TVM2 at 04:30 p.m.
