| 1 | I can explain what being a "stranger" is and that one should also care for strangers, since they are also persons. | | | | |
| 2 | I can show that I care for all children in class and in school, even if I don't know them. | | | | |
| 3 | I can talk about my neighbourhood as a geographical and social space, and the implications of living in it, such as my obligations towards my neighbours. | | | | |
| 4 | I can participate in a discussion about the treatment of animate and inanimate beings. | | | | |
| 5 | I can recognise the importance of the natural environment, including the air we breathe. | | | | |
| 6 | I can argue that taking care of the environment is a worldwide concern, and that we are all duty-bound to protect it. | | | | |
