

PSCD Broad learning outcomes

Year 9

1. I can recognize and talk about, different strategies I can adopt, when dealing with different emotions, behaviours and challenges in my life.
2. I can identify and define what healthy and positive relationships.
3. I can talk about different strategies and skills to cope with these different relationships.
4. I can understand and talk about what is meant by stereotypical and prejudicial attitudes and actions and how these can effect relationships and the community.
5. I can list a number of reasons why people choose a career/ job and the skills needed for a particular career/job.
6. I can identify the rights and duties of both employers and employees at the place of work.
7. I can mention healthy and unhealthy actions and habits related to online and everyday life activities.
8. I can articulate my personal responsibilities related to my sexual health, well-being and behaviour.
9. I can discuss issues related to a healthy and sustainable environment.