Listening Task 1 – Audio-Visual

Transcript

You are going to listen to and view a film trailer.

Now, where to begin? The first thing you need to know is that my mother named me Enola. She insisted on it, in fact!

I know it's an unusual name, but my mother is rather a fan of word games. And Enola spelled backwards reads, well, "alone." She would continually tell me... You'll do very well on your own, Enola. And yet we were always together. My father died when I was young. I don't really remember him. And both my brothers left home soon after. I barely remember them, either. So then it was just the two of us, and it was wonderful. She was not an ordinary mother. She didn't teach me to string seashells or practise my embroidery. We did different things. Reading, science, sports, all sorts of exercise, - both physical and mental. Mother said we were free to do anything at Ferndell… and be anyone. She was my whole world.

Listening Task 2 – Audio

Transcript

You are going to listen to an interview with a professional gamer.

Interviewer: Hey guys and gals, welcome back to our channel. Today with us is professional gamer Kyle also known as 'Bugha'. Kyle won 3 million Euro in the Fortnite World Cup solo final in 2019 at only 16 years of age. We are excited to have you with us, Kyle. Tell us about yourself.

Kyle: Well, I'm Kyle but people know me as "Bugha", a nickname that my grandpa gave me. I'm 19 years old and to no one's surprise, I love playing video games, especially Fortnite. I also have my own YouTube channel named Kyle Bugha. I actually started playing video games at the tender age of 3 and it has now become my passion.

Interviewer: Can you tell us about a typical day in your life? Like, what time do you get up?

Kyle: During the week I'm an early bird and wake up early around 6.30am for school. At weekends, I can afford to lie in bed and wake up around noon because I play till the early hours of the morning.

Interviewer: What about weekends?

Kyle: After I brush my teeth, I put on some comfy clothes and go for a jog with my dog, Zoey. I play with her and exercise a little bit because it relaxes my mind. I, then, go home and get ready for the day. I usually have something to eat like toast and some orange juice. Since I live stream my videos, I make an effort and fix my hair.

Interviewer: Oh, I thought you jump straight into playing as soon as you get up.

Kyle: Many people think that being a professional gamer involves just playing the game nonstop, but like you, I, too, need to spend time outdoors and do my schoolwork.

Interviewer: Can you tell us about your work and training plan?

Kyle: During school days, I usually do my homework right after school to get it over and done with. I warm up my hands and start playing Fortnite for at least four hours each day. My parents say that as long as my grades are up, I can keep playing. Then, I usually have calls with my team and my management. I go onto a call, talk to all my friends and go over strategies. I then play and livestream on my channel. I usually have around 20,000 viewers watching me live.

Interviewer: Do you ever get tired of playing?

Kyle: Yes, I do get extremely tired, it's like a job. I don't play the whole day and I continuously take short breaks. It's not healthy to sit in front of a screen for long hours. You have to make sure you still have an active lifestyle and meet people outside not just online. I make sure I talk to and go out with my friends and family and have a good time with them.

Interviewer: Thanks for sharing your busy day with us, Kyle. Like our video and subscribe to our channel YoungPros for more videos.
